C.H. 28/4/30

Dear Sir,

I am sending you a draft for Rs. 5000/- in payment of the Rockefeller Foundation's grant to the first year of the Stations for the Study of Malaria. This first year was from October 1, 1928, when the Station at Nagenhalli, Mysore District, opened, until September 30, 1929. The agreement between Government and the Rockefeller Foundation stated that the Foundation would contribute this amount to the budget of these Stations for two years, provided the total expenditure exceeded Rs. 15,000/- per year.

The amount was sent as a draft to me personally and I have endorsed it to the Government of Mysore. The accountant of the Imperial Bank, on whom the draft is made, stated that this proceedure would be alright. I would be much obliged if you would send me a receipt in duplicate, the original to be sent to the Rockefeller Foundation.
